RUTH GILB

Arcadia TofR taps Ruth Gilb for presidency

Ruth Gilb has taken over from Craig Lucas as the new president of the Arcadia Tournament of Roses Committee.

Serving as treasurer of the organization will be Jewell High. Dr. Leonard Churchman will be president-elect. Other members of the board of directors include Michael Allison, Martha Bermingham, Sam Falzone, Rosemary Franco, Cliff Goodrich, Richard Hachten, Jim Hanrahan, Celia Kalm, Jim Kenney, Monty Lindsey, Dennis Lojeski, Beverly Margett, Bardella Mason, Kelvin Mason, Betty Masten, Harriet McComas, Gordon Penharlow, Jack Saelid, Dick Thinger, Jerry Voskeritchian and Caye Wells.

Gilb was born and raised in Havre, Mont., where she attended Montana College and the University of Idaho. She has a long record of community involvement.

She is currently active as president of HOY, chairman of student loans for the Altrusa Club of Arcadia, chairman of the Sister City Commission of Arcadia, lecture series chairman of the Assistance League of Pasadena, member of the National Charity League and a member of the Costume Council of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art.

She is also a member of the Social Service Auxiliary of Los Angeles, the Alpha Auxiliary of the Visiting Nurses Association and the Santa Teresita Auxiliary.

Gilb and her husband, Charles, former mayor of Arcadia, have three adult children, Denice, Michael and Valerie.

In addition to her very active volunteer career, she is the owner of R.V.G. Collection in Arcadia.